

OPPORTUNITY AVAILABLE SURVEYOR'S ASSISTANT

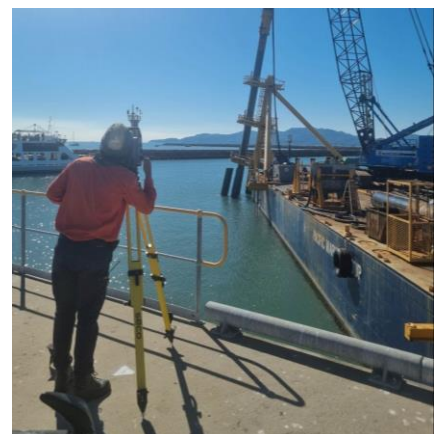

Rowlands Surveys Pty Ltd is an established Land Surveying company, servicing North Queensland from its Townsville Office. Rowlands Surveys are looking for an enthusiastic person who may be interested in a career in Surveying.

We would like to offer work experience with the possibility of casual employment over the school holidays for a suitable applicant.

If this leads to an interest in studying Surveying after graduating High School, the opportunity for full time work with part time University study may be offered and supported.

Preferred Requirements:

- Construction Induction card
- Drivers Licence

If you like the outdoors and working on a variety of projects with the latest technology, please send your resume to:
